	1 players who plays	2 objectives • what players try to achieve	3 procedures • the actions players take — who does what, when and how	4 rules what is allowed and forbidden	5 resources things of value that are scarce: lives
F FEELINGS what the player feels	F1	F2	F3	F4	F5
D DYNAMICS what happens when people play	D1	D2	D3	D4	D5
M MECHANICS rules a designer writes	M1	M2	M3	M4	M5

6 conflict •

what keeps players from reaching the objective directly: obstacles

7 boundaries

what separates the game from the rest: the space and limits of the game world

8 outcome •

how the game or a part of it ends: winning

9 drama

premise, character, story — narration and the fiction

10 interface

how the game is shown to the player and how they read and control it: cameras

F FEELINGS
what the player feels

F6 F7 F8 F9 F10

D DYNAMICS
what happens when people play

D6 D7 D8 D9 D10

M MECHANICS
rules a designer writes

M6 M7 M8 M9 M10